TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

THE ARMISTICE CONDITIONS.
GERMAN DELEGATES RECEIVE THEM.
REPLY DEMANDED BY MONDAY.
SUSPENSION OF FIGHTING REFUSED.

LYONS, Nov. 8.
The German Delegates arrived at Marshal Foch's Headquarters and made a formal request for an Armistice.
The text of the Allies' conditions was read to them and a copy handed to the Delegation.
They then requested that fighting should be suspended.
This was refused.
The Parlementaires then asked to be allowed to communicate with their Government and send the text of the terms by courier to Spa, where the German Grand Headquarters are situated.
The necessary authority was given to the courier, who left for Germany.
A delay of 72 hours has been allowed for the German reply, which must be handed over at 11 o'clock on Monday morning.
—French Wireless.

GERMANY WANTS PROVISIONAL CESSATION OF FIGHTING.
AMSTERDAM, Nov. 8.
The French wireless message containing Marshal Foch's instructions to the German plenipotentiaries, was the reply to a Berlin wireless message announcing the composition of the delegation and stating that it would be accompanied by secretaries and interpreters. The subordinate personnel would arrive in motor cars at a place designated. The message added that the Crown Government would be glad if, with the arrival of the delegation at the front of the Allies, a provisional cessation of fighting could take place.
THE GERMAN DELEGATION.
London, Nov. 8.
A German official wireless message says—
The German delegation for the conclusion of an Armistice consists of: Herr Erzberger, Count Oudendort (former Ambassador to Sofia), General von Guerdell and General von Winterfeldt.
GERMAN DELEGATES EXPECTED ARRIVAL.
PARIS, Nov. 7.
The German delegates were expected to pass the French outposts between 8 and 10 o'clock on Thursday evening.
HUPPRECHT'S HEADQUARTERS AT LIEGE.
GERMAN ADMINISTRATION TRANSFERRED TO LIEGE.
PARIS, Oct. 31.
The Allied military newspaper, Le Matin, states that the German administration has been transferred to Liege. The German military forces have been ordered to leave Belgium.

REVOLUTION IN GERMANY.
REVOLUTIONARIES CONTROL HAMBURG.
AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.
A message from Hamburg states that the sailor and soldier revolutionaries completely control Hamburg. The red flag was hoisted on ships in the harbour and a Soldier's Council has been established and occupied the Kommandantur after machine-gun fighting.
Thousands of workers formed a procession in the streets and furiously soldiers were prevented from entering for the front.
The Council has organised armed patrols to maintain public order.
REVOLUTIONARIES DEMANDS GRANTED.
LATER.
Fifteen thousand revolutionaries headed by sailors proceeded to the Bundesstrasse barracks and summoned the soldiers to quit, whereupon the latter fired gas bombs into the revolutionaries. Fighting ensued and the officers surrendered the barracks. Subsequently the Commander of Hamburg and Altona granted all demands, which were similar to those made at Kiel.
Similar events are stated to have occurred at Rensburg and Cuxhaven.

SUBMARINE CREWS JOIN REVOLUTIONARIES.
LONDON, Nov. 7.
A message from Copenhagen reports that the majority of the submarine crews have joined the revolutionaries.
THE DOWNFALL OF GERMANY.
A GENUINE REVOLUTIONARY AGITATION.
LYONS, Nov. 8.
A message to the Les Nouvelles states that the fury and exasperation caused by the downfall of Germany have raised a genuine revolutionary agitation, extending from the Baltic to the North Sea.
The revolt broke out at Kiel on November 3rd, and, in spite of the troops, the mutineers became masters of the naval port and arsenal.
By the 5th inst. the whole of the port of Kiel and the ships there were under the control of the mutineers.
On the 5th and 6th inst. the mutiny extended to Wilhelmshaven, where the port and ships of the fleet soon joined the movement.

GARRISON TROOPS JOIN REVOLTING SAILORS.
LYONS, Nov. 8.
Reliable information has reached Amsterdam that in Hamburg between 15,000 and 20,000 men belonging to the Garrison have joined the revolting sailors and strikers.
—French Wireless.

ALLIED FLEETS AT CONSTANTINOPLE.
LONDON, Nov. 8.
Reuter learns that the Allied Fleets will anchor off St. Sophia, Constantinople on Saturday November 9th.

GERMANS DEPARTING FROM HUMANIA.
PARIS, Nov. 7.
The Nouvelles Gazette de Zurich states that all the German (liberation) troops are preparing to leave Rumania. General von Mackensen is personally directing the evacuation of German military forces.

AN INCONVENIENT
ELECTION.

THE THREE PARTIES.

In the "New Republic," New York.
Mr. Sidney Webb writes on the "Coming British Elections," and makes some interesting forecasts, without, however, venturing to predict the outcome of the election as a whole. In reading the extracts given herewith it should be borne in mind that the article was probably written at the beginning of July.
Within three, or at most four, months from the time this article appears (August 3) (writes Mr. Webb), the United Kingdom will almost certainly be plunged into a General Election, when something approaching 20 millions of electors, voting in approximately equal electoral districts, will decide the policy and virtually elect the Prime Minister of the British Empire.
It will be an inconvenient occasion for such a momentous consultation of the electorate. Nearly half the adult population is under arms, most of it overseas. More than half the industrial workers are engaged in the production of munitions and other war supplies; directly or indirectly in Government pay. There will be almost a famine in paper and envelopes; and most of the election speakers and writers, and many of the election campaign staffs, are serving with the colonies. The newly compiled registers, with special provision for the soldiers and for some other absentee voters, will include the names of a larger percentage of the census population—in different districts between 40 and 45 out of every 100—than has ever before been enfranchised in any great nation. All the women and probably half of the men—possibly three-fourths of the entire electorate—will vote for the first time in their lives. And they will, we must assume, cast their votes amid the tense excitement of an unparalleled national struggle, in which the very existence of the British Empire is at stake.
The result, Mr. Webb thinks, is more unpredictable than that of any previous election. He adds:
"We may all concur in estimating that Ireland, as usual, will go against the Government by four to one in seats. Of the six hundred seats in Great Britain, Mr. Lloyd George's Coalition party may probably secure seven-twelfths, or 350. The balance will be divided between the followers of Mr. Asquith and those of Mr. Henderson; and no one is prepared to predict with any confidence which of these minorities will be the greater. For my own part, I should think the Labour party will have done well if, contesting only two-thirds of the seats in Great Britain, it polls a quarter of the aggregate vote, and if its present 35 members return to the House of Commons a hundred strong. But, in spite of all Mr. Lloyd George's political strategy and Press tornado, there may possibly be a landslide to the left; and, unless Mr. Asquith's Liberal party promptly makes up its mind to take up energetically at the election the part of 'his Majesty's Opposition,' the landslide will carry forward not the Liberal but the Labour forces. But it is important to realise that, whatever may be the electoral outcome, the decision of the vast majority of the nation resolutely to maintain the war will be the same. Substantially the official programmes of all three parties on this point will be identical. Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. Asquith and Mr. Henderson—differing mainly in phraseology and in the proportion allowed to particular details—will all declare that we must fight on for the arms laid down by President Wilson, and, nevertheless, neglect no honest overtures from the enemy. The Labour party may dislike the manner, and also the binders, of the members of the present Administration; it thinks it could better their policy at this point or that; on their treatment of 'reconstruction' and domestic policy generally it is profoundly at issue with them; but it has no desire to weaken the national effort in the war."

MR. J. I. EZRA v. MR. MERRIMAN.
CLAIM FOR £15,000 DAMAGES.
A petition has been filed at the U.S. Court for China, Shanghai, by Mr. A. D. Gibbs, legal adviser to Mr. Ezra, I. Ezra, in proceedings to recover damages for libel from Mr. W. L. Merriman over matters arising out of the recent "Baseball scandal." The petition, service of which was accepted by Messrs. Jernigan, Fessenden & Rose, is a lengthy document setting forth eight different complaints in respect of each of which a separate sum is claimed for damages, the total amounting to £15,000.
The counts allege, says the "N. O. Daily News," that the defendant wrongfully and maliciously charged the plaintiff in the hearing of other persons with having caused the 9th U.S. Cavalry team to lose their match with Mei University for the purpose of defrauding certain persons with whom he had received considerable sums of money. The remaining counts deal with the letter which Mr. Merriman is alleged to have written reporting the matter to the Race Club, the publication of the notice convening the members to the meeting at which the plaintiff was expelled from membership, the publication of Mr. Merriman's letter by reading it at the meeting and the statement alleged to have been made by the defendant to the effect: "Well, I wrote that letter and I am perfectly willing to withdraw the charge of bribery, but I can prove it up to the hilt and I am willing to do so right here."
The remaining counts cover the publication of the verbatim report of the proceedings including the latter complaint, of which it is claimed to have led to the expulsion of the plaintiff from the Polo Club, the publication of a report of the meeting in a contemporary also including the letter complained of, and the publication in the same journal of a letter over the signature "Glean Sport," which was claimed to be a false and defamatory letter. In a number of the counts the petition states that the defendant committed the acts complained of in conjunction with Mr. W. S. Jackson and others.
